QUESTION 5

Mr. Kuna is the sole director and member of Kunang-Kunang Sdn. Bhd. ('Kunang'). He agreed to help Ms. Luna to incorporate her private limited company and to secure few projects for her company.

As the first step, Mr. Kuna entered into a joint-venture agreement to develop a piece of land ('the land') on behalf of Ms. Luna's future company with a developer known as Restu Sdn. Bhd. ('Restu'). The land was still owned by Kunang. The agreement was entered with a view that the land will be sold to Ms. Luna upon incorporation of her company and to be further developed into a Bestari-City-Square by Restu.

Three (3) months later, with Mr. Kuna's help, Ms. Luna's company known as Spicy Sdn. Bhd. ('Spicy') was successfully incorporated where in its application form, the nature of its business stated is as a trading company. Ms. Luna is the sole member and director of the Spicy.

Upon incorporation of Spicy, Kunang sold the land to Spicy and tripled the price than that was bought by them earlier. However, the joint venture agreement with Restu was later immaterialized as the approval from the relevant authority to develop the land could not be obtained.

As Spicy was at loss, Ms. Luna sold 60% of her shares to Mr. Kuna. However, Mr. Kuna only paid half of the price of the shares to Ms. Luna. Balance of the purchase price shall be paid in due course.

The situation becomes worse when the creditors of Spicy started to chase Ms. Luna and Mr. Kuna for the unpaid debts of the company.

Discuss.
